

BASIC FRONTLINE SUPERVISOR SKILLS

For Emerging Leaders

This workshop series covers some of the basic skills that all supervisors can utilize in day to day operations. Topics include conflict management, team dynamics, ethical leadership, cross-cultural interaction, and more, with a focus on practical skills that you can put to work immediately.

Training is taught by Brett Whitaker, Associate Professor and Chair, Leadership Studies, Fort Hays State University.

REGISTER TODAY!

DATES & TIMES:

Join the training! July 24, 25, 30, and 31 from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. each day. Training will be held via Zoom.

COSTS:

The cost to attend training is $185 per person.

REGISTER:

To register for training, email mshreve@interhab.org.

STAY TUNED:

A follow up session is being planned for November 21 if there is enough interest from the group!

